

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

(<https://www.texasobserver.org/>)

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

Prairie View A&M students, galvanized by yet another fight for equal voting rights, march to the polls.

by Michael Barajas (<https://www.texasobserver.org/author/michael-barajas/>)

Tue, Nov 6, 2018 at 3:08 pm CST

Jayla Allen, one of the PVAMU students represented by the NAACP Legal Defense Fund in their lawsuit against Waller County over restricted early voting access. MICHAEL BARAJAS

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

When Jess [redacted] other students to vote, she takes a moment to [redacted] (https://www.texasobserver.org/story-of-discrimination-against-students-at-texas-oldest-historically-black-college-and-how-they-have-always-fought-back/)

This year, Prairie View students fought for equal access to early voting (https://www.texasobserver.org/in-the-midterms-texans-face-a-panoply-of-voter-suppression/), but in previous elections the stakes were even higher (https://www.pvamu.edu/1876/2017/03/31/the-walk-of-political-engagement-at-pvamu/). In 1971, after the 26th Amendment extended the vote to people 18 years and older, Waller County prohibited students from voting until students fought the case all the way to the Supreme Court and eventually won the right. But Waller County's white leaders weren't defeated. Until 2013, there wasn't a polling place on campus. Students had to find a way to the county community center a mile away along a busy roadway, only to face long lines. Many made the trek on foot.

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

Jessmine Cornelius, PRAIRIE VIEW A&M

OBSERVER

(https://www.texasobserver.org/)

This election week of early voting, Cornelius, a junior studying history at Prairie View A&M University, worked with other activists to drive dozens of students to polling places in nearby towns after Waller County officials initially denied the majority-black city a single early voting polling place (https://www.naacpldf.org/wp-content/uploads/Complaint-Allen-v.-Waller-County-filed.pdf).

At a rally and march on campus Tuesday to fire up students to vote, Cornelius made sure to remind students' about the history of activism at Prairie View.

"This is what your former Panthers fought for," Cornelius said, referencing the school's mascot. "Yes, there's a history of discrimination, but also of us overcoming it."

The Prairie View students chanted and blared music atop a trailer that snaked through the university streets, attracting some 200 students that marched with them to the campus polling place. They carried impromptu signs with messages like "No Vote, No Hope" and "PVAMU's Ancestors EARNED the RIGHT to Vote in Waller County!"

"We have power when we turn out," said Jessica Nicole Purnell, a junior who organized the march. "That's why Waller County's afraid of us."

This year, Prairie View again became a national flashpoint in the battle for voting rights (https://www.nytimes.com/2018/11/03/us/politics/voting-suppression-elections.html). On the heels of a snafu (https://www.khou.com/article/news/local/voter-registration-issues-arise-at-prairie-view-am-university/285-603008371) that threw thousands of student voter registrations into question, the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund sued (https://www.naacpldf.org/wp-content/uploads/Complaint-Allen-v.-Waller-County-filed.pdf) Waller County officials for refusing to extend early voting hours in the city.

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

Participants at the rally held up “No Vote No Hope” signs as they marched to the student center, the campus polling location. MICHAEL BARAJAS

The lawsuit, on behalf of several Prairie View students, pointed out that majority-white parts of Waller County were given more early voting opportunities than Prairie View residents. County officials insisted it wasn’t discrimination, but rather a decision based on limited resources. The lawsuit called those justifications “tenuous pretexts for racial discrimination against black voters in Prairie View.”

Frank Jackson, the city’s former mayor (<https://www.texasobserver.org/prairie-view-mayor-frank-jackson-interview/>) who’s been at the forefront of voting rights efforts in Prairie View, says this year’s voting problems appear to have galvanized students in the city. “This was all them,” he said pointing to the crowd outside the student center. “This is their game, and now we’re out here to support them however we can.”

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

Carla Rich [REDACTED] crowd, beaming with pride. Her father taught at the [REDACTED] (https://www.texasobserver.org/). She graduated from the school, as did her son. "Don't get me wrong, it's horrendous that here we are in 2018 and we still have to march for the same thing that I fought for in 1979, that my son fought for in 2008."

"But I'm so happy these students are still out here marching, still fighting," she said. "It is beautiful to see them marching."

The Texas Observer is taking part in NewsMatch 2018. Beginning November 1, all donations will be matched up to $30,800, thanks to generous funding provided by INN and the Jonathan Logan Family Foundation. This is a great opportunity to make your support go twice as far when you give to fund our journalism before December 31!

LEARN MORE

(https://online.icnfull.com/txo/?

action=SUBSCRIPTION&pub_code=TNA&term_pub=TNA&base_country=US&list.

Michael Barajas is a staff writer covering civil rights for the Observer. You can reach him on Twitter (https://twitter.com/michaelsbarajas) or at barajas@texasobserver.org (mailto:barajas@texasobserver.org).

(https://www.texasobserver.org/newsletter-signup/)

Get the latest Texas Observer news, analysis and investigations via Facebook (https://www.facebook.com/texasobserver), Twitter (https://twitter.com/TexasObserver) and our weekly newsletter (https://www.texasobserver.org/newsletter-signup/).

Enter your email

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

Read More: prairie view (https://www.texasobserver.org/prairie-view/), sandra bland (https://www.texasobserver.org/tag/sandra-bland/), voter suppression (https://www.texasobserver.org/voter-suppression/), walker county (https://www.texasobserver.org/tag/walker-county/)

You May Also Like:

In Texas, One of the World's Oldest, Weirdest Fish Finally Gets its Due (https://www.texasobserver.org/odd-fish-alligator-gar-old-weird-texas-monster/)

Long considered "trash fish," alligator gar have patrolled Texas rivers for millions of years. Now this living fossil may finally be getting its due.

by Asher Elbein (https://www.texasobserver.org/author/asher-elbein/)

(https://www.texasobserver.org/new-contract-could-give-austin-one-of-the-most-transparent-police-departments-in-the-country/)

New Contract Could Give Austin One of the Most Transparent Police Departments in the Country (https://www.texasobserver.org/new-contract-could-give-austin-one-of-the-most-transparent-police-departments-in-the-country/)

Activists are claiming victory after a drawn-out fight over police accountability, and encouraging other cities to follow suit.

by Michael Barajas (https://www.texasobserver.org/author/michael-barajas/)

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

(<https://www.texasobserver.org/>)

(<https://www.texasobserver.org/octavio-solis-retablos-recounts-a-beautiful-messy-youth-on-the-border/>)

Octavio Solis' 'Retablos' Recounts a 'Beautiful, Messy' Youth on the Border
(<https://www.texasobserver.org/octavio-solis-retablos-recounts-a-beautiful-messy-youth-on-the-border/>)

Though its title evokes Mexican folk art, Retablos is closer in effect to that of French pointillism. Its small dabs of vivid color produce a brilliant cumulative effect.

by Steven G. Kellman (<https://www.texasobserver.org/author/steven-g-kellman/>)

Popular Articles Now:

- 1 Meet the Scientist and Autism Dad Who's Fighting the Anti-Vaccine Movement
(<https://www.texasobserver.org/meet-the-scientist-and-autism-dad-whos-fighting-the-anti-vaccine-movement/>)
- 2 Ken Paxton's Strange Quest to Execute an Intellectually Disabled Man
(<https://www.texasobserver.org/ken-paxtons-strange-quest-to-execute-an-intellectually-disabled-man/>)
- 3 Texas is a Purple State Now. The Proof is in Last Night's Results.
(<https://www.texasobserver.org/texas-is-a-purple-state-now-the-proof-is-in-last-nights-results/>)

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

<https://www.texasobserver.org/on-election-day-students-rally-for-voting-rights-at-texas-oldest-hbcu/>

8/10

PLS000171

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

OBSERVER

(<https://www.texasobserver.org/>)

(<https://www.texasobserver.org/leak-to-> the-observer/)

11/19/2018

On Election Day, Students Rally for Voting Rights at Texas' Oldest HBCU

(<https://www.texasobserver.org/>)

© 2018 The Texas Observer. All rights reserved.

Privacy Policy (<https://www.texasobserver.org/privacy/>)

Terms and Conditions (<https://www.texasobserver.org/terms/>)

f (<https://www.facebook.com/texasobserver>) t (<https://twitter.com/TexasObserver>)

i (<https://www.instagram.com/texasobserver/>)

✉ (<https://mailchi.mp/texasobserver/newsletter-signup>)

r (<https://www.reddit.com/domain/texasobserver.org/>)

g+ (<https://plus.google.com/+texasobserver/posts>)